

IFA Conference on Problems in International Taxation

On 27-28 October the Regional IFA Conference on Problems in International Taxation took place at Tbilisi State University, sponsored by Deloitte in Georgia.

About 50 representatives from professional firms and different countries, representatives of the Revenue Service of the Ministry of Finance of Georgia and university academics attended the conference.

Ketevan Kukhianidze and Mikheil Chapurishvili presented at the conference on behalf of Deloitte in Georgia. They delivered a presentation on Georgian transfer pricing regulations and latest audit practices.

The Conference proved to be very interesting and productive according to feedback from the attendees. Their points of their interest were addressed, and they received answers to their most pressing questions.
