FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Raiffeisen Bank International, ICC Georgia, Asian Development Bank and TBC Bank announce
Two-Day Regional Conference in Tbilisi: "Trusted Banking: Business Resilience Through Compliance"

Tbilisi, Georgia- November 5, 2025 Raiffeisen Bank International, ICC Georgia, Asian Development Bank and TBC Bank are pleased to announce a high-level Banking Conference and Networking Event to be held in Tbilisi, Georgia on November 6-7, 2025 under the theme:

"Trusted Banking: Business Resilience Through Compliance"

The landmark event will bring together regulators, banks, international organizations and major importers and exporters operating across the CIS Region. Participants will include senior representatives from the Caucasus, Central Asia and Europe, offering a unique opportunity to exchange insights, foster partnerships, and strengthen cross-border cooperation.

The two-day program will feature a dynamic mix of the keynote speeches, expert presentations, and interactive panel discussions led by regulatory authorities and renowned international business and compliance professionals. Case studies sessions highlight both international and local best practices, emphasizing practical approaches to compliance and sustainable growth in the banking sector. Beyond expert dialogue, the conference will explore how robust compliance frameworks contribute to economic development, international trade, and investment confidence, reinforcing trust and transparency across the financial ecosystem.

"The conference represents a vital platform for advancing trust, integrity, and resilience in the banking sector. By uniting thought leaders and practitioners, we aim at inspiring collaboration and promoting responsible business practices across the region "- said the Chairman of ICC Georgia, Mr. Fady Asly.
